

UBS EXTERNAL STAFF PRIVACY NOTICE - MEXICO

DATA PROTECTION UNDER FEDERAL DATA PROTECTION HELD BY PRIVATE PARTIES ACT

To run our business, UBS collects and uses any information that relates to an identified or identifiable natural person, that could be considered as (i) Simple Personal Data, (ii) Financial Personal Data, and/or (iii) Sensitive Personal Data (hereinafter, jointly and severally as a general reference of the three types of personal data, "Personal Data"), including information about the employees and contractors of our suppliers ("you" or "External Staff").

UBS takes your privacy seriously. This Privacy Notice ("Notice") contains information on what Personal Data the UBS entities in Mexico referred to in Section 10 ("UBS", "we", "our", or "us") and other companies of the group to which we belong (the "UBS Group") collect(s), what we do with that information, and what rights you have, in compliance with the provisions of the Ley Federal de Protección de Datos Personales en Posesión de los Particulares (the Mexican Federal Data Protection held by Private Parties Act, hereinafter, the "Act").

As part of our commitment to protect your Personal Data we want to inform you in a transparent manner:

- why and how UBS collects, uses and stores your Personal Data;
- what your rights are in relation to such processing and how you can exercise them.

1 What does this Notice cover?

This Notice applies to any and all forms of use of Personal Data ("processing") by UBS in relation to our External Staff in Mexico.

2 What type of Personal Data do we collect?

We collect basic identification information, such as your name, title, position, professional history, experience, language skills and contact details. Such information will be collected if provided to us by your employer, for instance on a CV you have prepared, even if you do not ultimately work on an assignment for UBS.

In addition, for External Staff working on UBS premises, we usually collect (to the extent permitted by applicable law):

- Detailed identification information (e.g., address, office location, business telephone number, date and place of birth, picture, emergency contact details, ID card, passport details and other national ID numbers as required);
- Detailed professional information (e.g., academic, professional and industry qualifications and certifications (including dates), directorship information, contact details of references, previous employment dates, rank or seniority, line manager contact information, working arrangements (such as full or part time), assignment allocation and absence information);
- Electronic identification data (e.g., login information, access right, badge number, IP address, online identifiers/cookies, logs and connection time, sound or image recording such as CCTV or voice recordings);
- Personal and physical characteristics (e.g., gender, date of birth and immigration status, and physical characteristics); and
- Information submitted in support of an application to work for UBS on behalf of your employer (e.g., and anything you choose to submit in support of your or your employer's application).

Where relevant and to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Personal Data that we collect will also include sensitive Personal Data, such as diversity related information (including data about racial and ethnic origin and political opinions), or health data (for instance to allow UBS to make appropriate adjustments to your working environment as a result of a disability) and data about alleged or proven criminal offences in each case where permitted by law.

In some cases, the Personal Data we collect from you is needed to meet our legal or regulatory obligations, to perform our obligations under UBS's contract with your employer (UBS's supplier), or to enter into that contract. If so, we will indicate to you that the provision of this information is mandatory, and the consequences if we cannot collect this information.

The above-mentioned Personal Data are collected from information that you or your employer directly provide and, in some cases, UBS will also collect Personal Data indirectly from background check providers such as CISIVE or HireRight, and other administration services providers, or from publicly available sources such as LinkedIn profiles.

3 For which purposes do we process Personal Data?

We always process your Personal Data for a specific purpose and only process the Personal Data which is relevant to achieve that purpose. We thereby take into account the role in which you are active with UBS. In particular, we process Personal Data of our External Staff to:

- a) Selection. For example, to:
 - determine the suitability of External Staff qualifications;
 - prepare for and enter into a contract with our supplier.
- b) Onboarding. For example, to:
 - set up internal profiles, collect information required to complete the onboarding process. For background checks please see section e) below;
 - assist us in managing external providers such as your employer (see section 5 for further information about when we work with service providers).
- c) Staff Administration. For example, to:
 - administer, plan and manage our personnel, suppliers and contractors (including task management and internal workforce analysis and planning);
 - allocate costs, optimize performance and enhance quality;

- where relevant, manage and make available Personal Data within the UBS Group;
 - carry out supplier performance reviews, satisfaction surveys and other contractor surveys;
 - track staff' interaction with internal email communication (including newsletters, interest groups and messages) to enable delivery of more relevant personalized content for improved readership and engagement.
- d) Training, development and other staff offerings. For example, to:
- train our External Staff;
 - carry out development initiatives and coaching activities;
 - inform you of internal events, leisure activities, and corporate sponsored discounts through approved third-party providers.
- e) Compliance & Risk Management and / or Crime Prevention, Detection & Investigation. For example, to:
- check for any existing or potential conflicts of interest or any other restrictions which may otherwise restrict or prevent a prospective engagement on a matter with UBS;
 - carry out periodic vetting checks where relevant;
 - receive and handle complaints, requests or reports from employees or third parties made to a compliance function, HR function, or other designated units within UBS or the UBS Group;
 - track relevant incidents related to our External Staff and / or persons they might have a connection with, in order to comply with legal or regulatory obligations, internal policies or for risk management purposes;
 - monitor and investigate electronic communications in order to be able to comply with legal or regulatory obligations, including compliance with banking regulations and internal policies or for risk management purposes;
 - track and record data accesses, to evaluate them and to scan data carriers as well as to evaluate the accessing or storage of data with the objective of ascertaining whether there has been a breach of the obligation to be task-related;
 - conduct internal investigations in line with UBS policies and/or as required by applicable legislation; and
 - reply to any actual or potential proceedings, requests or the inquiries of a public or judicial authority.
- f) Supporting, Enhancing and Maintaining UBS's technology. For example:
- to provide for a centralized, global approach to the provision of IT services to our External Staff and enable External Staff within the UBS group to interact with one another and UBS employees. This normally involves the hosting of your contact and e-mail information to allow UBS's global IT network to be established and populated with relevant details;
 - to manage our IT resources, including infrastructure management and business continuity.
- g) Other purposes:
- to exercise our duties and/or rights vis-à-vis you or third parties;
 - to enable a transfer, merger or disposal to a potential buyer, transferee, merger partner or seller and their advisers in connection with an actual or potential transfer, merger or disposal of part or all of UBS's business or assets, or any associated rights or interests, or to acquire a business or enter into a merger with it;
 - to offer our products and services to our customers (e.g., we may communicate professional contact details of one of our employees to a customer or supplier, indicating that this person is the contact person within the UBS organization);

- to collect data to ensure the security of buildings as well as property and information located or stored on the premises, to prevent, and if necessary investigate unauthorized physical access to secure premises (e.g., maintaining building access logs and CCTV system images).

4 How do we protect Personal Data?

All personnel accessing Personal Data must comply with the internal rules and processes in relation to the processing of your Personal Data to protect them and ensure their confidentiality.

UBS and the UBS Group have also implemented adequate technical and organizational measures to protect your Personal Data against unauthorized, accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, misuse, disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of processing.

5 Who has access to Personal Data and with whom are they shared?

5.1 Within the UBS Group

We make available Personal Data to members of our personnel and within the UBS Group for the purposes indicated in section 3.1. Other companies of the UBS Group may process your Personal Data on behalf and upon request of UBS.

5.2 Outside UBS and the UBS Group

5.2.1 Third Parties

We share Personal Data with other credit and financial services institutions and comparable institutions (including brokers, exchanges, upstream withholding agents; swap or trade repositories, stock exchanges, central securities depositories), our professional advisers and consultants (e.g., lawyers, tax accountants or labour consultants) or clients as part of you working on tasks related to or involving those parties.

5.2.2 Service Providers

In some instances, we also share Personal Data with our suppliers, who are contractually bound to confidentiality, such as IT system or hosting providers, payroll providers, cloud service providers, database providers, training, education and development providers and third parties who carry out vetting checks, and other goods and services providers (such as communication service providers). When we do so we take steps to ensure they meet our data security standards, so that your Personal Data remains secure.

Service providers are thereby mandated to comply with a list of technical and organisational security measures, irrespective of their location, including measures relating to: (i) information security management; (ii) information security risk assessment and (iii) information security measures (e.g., physical controls; logical access controls; malware and hacking protection; data encryption measures; backup and recovery management measures).

5.2.3 Public or regulatory authorities

If required from time to time, we disclose Personal Data to public authorities, regulators or governmental bodies, courts or party to proceedings where we are required to disclose information by applicable law or regulation, under a code of practice or conduct, at their request, or to safeguard our legitimate interests.

5.2.4 Other

- A potential buyer, transferee, merger partner or seller and their advisers in connection with an actual or potential transfer or merger of part or all of UBS's business or assets, or any associated rights or interests, or to acquire a business or enter into a merger with it;
- Any legitimate recipient required by applicable laws or regulations.

5.3 Data Transfer to other Countries

The Personal Data transferred within or outside UBS and the UBS Group as set out in sections 5.1 and 5.2, is in some cases also processed in other countries. We only transfer your Personal Data abroad to countries which are considered to provide an adequate level of data protection, or in the absence of such legislation that guarantees adequate protection, based on appropriate safeguards (e.g., standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission to the extent recognized by the competent Data Protection Authority or another statutory exemption) provided by local applicable law.

You may request additional information in this respect and obtain a copy of the relevant safeguard by contacting the Group Data Protection Office at dpo-americas@ubs.com. A list of the countries in which UBS and the UBS Group operate can be found at <https://www.ubs.com/global/en/our-firm/locations.html>.

6 How long do we store your data?

We will only retain Personal Data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with legal, regulatory or internal policy requirement. In general, your Personal Data will be kept in our systems during your engagement with UBS and up to 10 years from the day that your engagement with UBS terminates. There may be exceptions to this general rule, for example:

- a) Personal Data that is no longer required or has become obsolete may be destroyed while the External Staff relationship is still ongoing for proportionality reasons;
- b) In certain cases, UBS may store and process Personal Data for a longer period than 10 years, in particular for compliance or risk management purposes, to comply with (other) legal and regulatory requirements, or if it is in UBS' legitimate interest.

If you were previously or are currently a Credit Suisse External Staff: Your information after your transition to UBS will be stored as per above. However, your information prior to your transition to UBS and/or any activities performed under the Credit Suisse entities, will continue to be stored as per the applicable Credit Suisse retention requirements until the full integration of systems and processes into UBS are completed.

However, if you wish to have your Personal Data removed from our databases, you can make a request as described in section 7 below, which we will review as set out therein.

7 What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

7.1 Your rights

If you would like to access, rectify, delete, cancel, copy, limit, suppress or object your Personal Data or require that the same may no longer be used by UBS, (hereinafter, the "ARCO Rights") in accordance with the Act, please send an email to sh-hr-data-requests-snow@ubs.com and the purpose of such request, specifying which ARCO Right established in the Act you want to exercise.

Upon receipt of such request, UBS will consider it in accordance with the Act, its Regulations and the internal privacy policies of UBS and shall respond to your request within a period of twenty (20) business days from receipt. It is important to bear in mind that certain Personal Data may not be subject to access, rectification, suppression, and copy and deletion rights, as provided in the Act and other laws and regulations.

We will usually, in response to a request, ask you to verify your identity and/or provide information that helps us to understand your request better. If we do not comply with your request, we will explain why.

If you are not satisfied with how UBS processes your Personal Data, please let us know and we will investigate your concern. Please raise any concerns by contacting the Group Data Protection Office at dpo-americas@ubs.com.

8 Changes to Personal Data

In the interest of keeping Personal Data properly up to date and accurate, we will ask you periodically to review and confirm the Personal Data we hold about you and/or to inform us of any change in relation to your Personal Data (such as a change of address).
